

2013 Summer General Meeting Thursday, August 22, 7:00 p.m.

- Chairman Ron Kontura Welcomes the divers to Ann Arbor
- Meet Director Ron Kontura Welcomes everyone to the Meet.
- Updates on the following Masters Divers:
 - Dal Stauffer passing away during the Spring National Meet
 - Barbra Blank tragically passing away – How to start an Endowment? Discussion
 - Lenny Larson in the hospital
- Introduction of NEW Divers
- A Special Welcome to the 3 Korean Divers who attended the meet.
- Introduction of USA Diving CEO Linda Paul and New USA Diving membership director Taylor Payne
- Discussion of the event order and timeline.
- Announcement – Future Meet Announcement – 40th Anniversary of Masters Diving will go back to where it all started in Texas. San Angelo was the site of the 1st National Championship and San Antonio will be the site for the 40th. The FINA Masters World Championship Meet in Montreal, Canada the first week of August. Talk, discussion of moving the Summer National meet to the weekend before the World Championships and for this meet to take place on the East Coast. Pools are being look into and the body approved the movement of the meet to end of July.

New Business:

- How to grow Masters Diving discussion. Introduction of a “Novice” category discussed. We will be offering a Novice event in San Antonio. Rules to be determine by meet director. If it goes well then it will be discussed about adding the events to the National Meets.
- Discussion on the USA Masters Diving Rule Book be cleaned up and updated. Richard Blough has stepped up to help bring the rule book current.

Meeting adjourned around 8:30 p.m

- Pizza was offered to everyone who attended.