- The following is a report from Ted Ogle: "For the low price of only $20 per person, our group of 20 or more can tour the Louisville Slugger Museum and Factory AND attend a Louisville Bats baseball game at Slugger Field. Each person will receive a guided factory tour, showcasing the history of the Louisville Slugger brand of baseball bats, and receive a mini Louisville Slugger bat as part of the tour." Thanks for doing the research, Ted.
- Chuck Simpson knows Gary Ulmer and is willing to contact him if we have more interest in the Bats game. (At present 13 people, 8.7%, have shown interest).
- Linda and John Weeter have volunteered to find out specifics about the Bourbon Trail. (21 people, 14.1%, have shown interest).
- Three different locations for the Cocktail Party and Dinner will be explored. Martha Puckett and Marcy Sutter will look at the Brown Hotel Roof Garden. Martha will ask Sarah Ferris McCall to look into the Frazier Museum. Chuck Peters will check out the Muhammed Ali Center. (40 people, 26.8% have interest in the cocktail/dinner).
