[Note: Since this was a first-time official event, these first place scores are technically being counted as meet records. However, since the FINA general rules state that you must be from the same team, there were a lot of potential entries that were excluded for this reason and so they will not be counted as world-records].

[Notes: 1.As of March 2002, The FINA Masters dive format was completely changed. Therefore, a new record section was implemented in 2004 reflecting this change (Riccione format.) 2.The XIII FINA World Masters Aquatic Championships will be held in 2010 in Sweden.. 3. The Supplement List of new divers for 2008 will be added at the end of the year. 4. These results are presented in the History Document format for the benefit of those who currently hold this document. They are being provided gratis for the benefit of continuity and those who are still interested in these results.]
